CHAPTER 1

General information

1.1 Holy Grace Group of Institutions

Holy Grace Group of Institutions (HGGI) was established in the year 1999 under the 'Holy Grace Foundation', a registered charitable and educational society formed with the intention for providing quality education. Under the foundation, the Holy Grace Academy of management Studies was established in the year 2005, the Holy Grace Academy of Engineering in 2010, the Holy Grace Academy of Pharmacy and the Holy Grace Polytechnic College in 2019 & Holy Grace Arts and Science college in 2024.

The HGGI is governed by a Board of Directors from the management Trustees including, the Chairman, General Secretary and other members. The Colleges under the HGGI functions under the guidance of its Management with a commitment to excellence in technical education, ethical values, discipline, and professional development.

At the Holy Grace Group of Institutions, we believe our employees are the real drivers of academic excellence. This Human Resource Policy Manual defines the rules, procedures, and guidelines governing the service conditions of teaching and non-teaching staff of the Institutions. The policy shall also be applicable to other Institutions that may be established under the foundation in the coming years. This HR policy manual is prepared to ensure a consistent, fair and supportive experience for every staff across all campuses. It outlines the standards, benefits and processes that guide our hiring, development and day-to-day work life, helping all of us to focus on the most important aspect – delivering quality education.

Vision of the Institution:

To be a premier Institution, that empowers students to excel academically, professionally and socially.

Mission of the Institution:

- Provide relevant and contemporary knowledge by facilitating Academia-industry interaction and enhancing engineering skills.
- Engage students for fostering value based holistic development and environmental responsibility.
- Integrate activities to inculcate social responsibility and entrepreneurial skills.

1.2 Governing Body

Central governance: The colleges shall be administered through the Board of Management, which shall set policies, standard operating procedures and oversee compliance across all colleges.

Campus Leadership: Each college shall have a Director/principal or both to handle day-to-day academic & administrative operations, student affairs, etc. and report to the Board of management.

1.3 Employment policy

This is a written set of rules and guidelines that explain how an institution recruits, appoints, manages, and supports its staff in a fair and transparent manner. It ensures proper recruitment, clear service conditions, performance evaluation, professional development, and grievance redressal, so that qualified and competent faculty and staff contribute effectively to the institution's academic quality.

This HR Policy applies to all employees under the Holy Grace Group of Institutions including full-time, contractual, part-time and temporary staff across all the Colleges.

1.4 Classification of Teaching staff & Non-teaching Staff

1. Teaching staff, also known as faculty members, are responsible for delivering academic instruction, mentoring students, and contributing to the academic development of the institution. The classification of teaching staff may vary depending on their roles, academic qualifications and as suggested by the particular approving/affiliating body.

2. Demonstrators and Lab Instructors may be included within the teaching staff category. They assist in conducting laboratory sessions, demonstrations, experiments, and practical training. Their role is crucial in ensuring that students acquire hands-on experience and practical competencies aligned with industrial requirements.
3. The Heads of Departments (HODs) form an important segment of the teaching staff. Each HOD oversees a specific academic department in the College. They are responsible for departmental administration, syllabus implementation, faculty coordination, laboratory supervision, and academic performance monitoring of students and staff within their department.
4. The principal serves as the academic authority of the institution, taking care of the day to day operations leading faculty & student affairs and curriculum activities. The Principal is responsible for academic planning, implementation of policies, supervision of teaching activities, coordination with regulatory bodies and interacting with parents & students. The principal reports to the Director and provides feedback to the Director on ground level issues.
5. The director charts the overall vision, strategy and growth of the entire Institution or a cluster of campuses. Director is responsible for setting long term goals, branding and expansion plans, managing budgets, finance and fundraising activities. The Director will ensure compliance with regulatory bodies, internal policies and reports to the management Board.
6. The administrative staff forms a major component of the non-teaching category. This includes office superintendents, clerks, accountants, and administrative assistants who handle admissions, student records, correspondence, examinations, payroll, finance, and general office management. They ensure compliance with institutional rules and regulatory requirements while supporting students and faculty in administrative matters.
7. The Library staff, including the Librarian and library assistants, are responsible for managing academic resources such as textbooks, reference books, journals, digital resources, and study materials. They support both students and teaching staff by facilitating access to learning resources, maintaining records, and ensuring a conducive academic environment in the library.

8. Laboratory support staff, such as lab attendants and technical assistants, also fall under the non-teaching category. They are responsible for maintaining laboratory equipment, preparing materials for practical sessions, ensuring safety standards, and assisting teaching staff during laboratory activities, though they do not perform teaching duties themselves.
9. Housekeeping staff keep campuses tidy, safe and welcoming. They shall sweep, mop & vacuum floors, clean restrooms, refill consumables and manage trash & recycling. They will report to the floor manager. They shall work in shifts/holidays as required. Overtime is allowed with prior approval.
10. Maintenance staff keep the campus infrastructure running including plumbing, electrical, HVAC, carpentry and minor civil works. They will conduct routine inspections & preventive maintenance of buildings, labs and hostels. They will fix leaks, broken fixtures, faulty wiring, air-conditioning issues, perform minor repairs, paint touch-ups, furniture upkeeps, respond to emergency calls, maintain logbooks and track spare-part inventory. They shall report to the CAO.
11. Security staff keep the campus safe 24x7, patrol entrances, monitor CCTV, check IDs, handle emergencies and enforce the Institution's safety rules. They will conduct regular security rounds, maintain visible presence and report suspicious activities to the Principal/CAO.

CHAPTER 2

Recruitment and Selection

2.1 Manpower Requisition

- Manpower requisition is the process of identifying and requesting required teaching and non teaching staff.

- Requirements arise due to staff vacancies, increased workload, new courses or higher student intake.
- Teaching staff needs are identified by Heads of Departments based on workload and Approving/Affiliating body norms.
- Non-teaching staff needs are identified by administrative and laboratory sections.
- Requisitions are submitted to the Principal for review and approval.
- Approved requirements are forwarded to the Management for sanction.
- Recruitment is carried out as per institutional and regulatory norms.
- Temporary or guest appointments may be made for urgent needs.

2.2 Advertisement

- Vacancies are advertised widely through newspapers and academic portals.
- Job descriptions clearly outline qualifications, experience, responsibilities, and application deadlines.

2.3 Processing of Applications

- Applications are collected through prescribed formats (online/offline).
- HR office maintains a record of all applications received.
- A preliminary screening committee screens resumes against advertised criteria, shortlists eligible candidates based on qualification and experience and shortlisted candidates receive a call for interview.

2.4 Interview Panel

Interview panel shall be constituted appropriately by the management for the selection process of each college. The panel may include director, principal, subject experts, external Industry experts (optional), HR personnel and management representatives.

2.5 Interview & Selection Process

- An appropriate Interview Panel shall be constituted by the Management for each selection process.

- Shortlisted candidates shall be formally informed about the subsequent stages of the selection process.
- For Teaching Staff: The selection process shall consist of a Technical Interview, Classroom Demonstration, and Personal Interview conducted before a duly constituted Selection Committee.
- For Non-Teaching Staff: The selection process shall include a Skill Test, wherever applicable, followed by a Personal Interview.
- The selected candidate shall be formally notified through official communication (email and/or telephone), and an Offer of Appointment shall be issued clearly outlining the terms and conditions of employment.

2.6 Probation & Confirmation

- All new recruits will undergo a probation period of 6 months.
- Performance evaluation will be conducted before confirmation of employment.

CHAPTER 3

Service rules

3.1 Appointment

Faculty and staff are appointed through the Staff Selection Committee. Continuation of service shall be subject to satisfactory performance upon completion of six months of service.

3.2 Office Hours

The institute timings are from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. 5 minutes of grace period is given to each employee in case of delay due to unforeseen circumstances from Monday to Saturday. This period of grace time may be condoned unless it becomes a matter of frequent habit.

The staff mark their attendance using the biometric system installed. The staff take a lunch break during specified hours. The staff follow office timing while coming to the office and leaving the office

For the staff working on shift bases, the timings will be decided by the CAO, according to the nature of work in the department. The shift timings if different from the regular timings, should be shared with the HR office by every first day of the month

It will be the responsibility of the HOD to inform the HR office regarding subordinates who remain absent from duty without informing or prior permission of the concerned authority. Such unauthorized absence, if not condoned, can mean break in service.

The HOD should inform the HR office, if an employee has obtained permission to attend late or to leave the office early.

3.3 Salary

- Salary structure shall be as per: - Approving/Affiliating body / State Government norms, or -Management approved consolidated pay
- Salaries shall be disbursed monthly through bank transfer.
- Annual increments shall be performance-based and subject to Management approval.

3.4 Performance Appraisal

The Faculty Performance Appraisal System aims to:

- Evaluate the academic, instructional, and professional contributions of faculty members
- Align individual performance with institutional goals and academic standards

- Promote continuous improvement in teaching–learning processes
- Identify training, development, and career advancement needs
- Ensure transparency, fairness, and accountability in performance evaluation

Annual Appraisal:

Conducted once every academic year, aligned with the academic calendar.

Evaluation Criteria

Shall be based on core responsibilities and deliverables, including teaching effectiveness, curriculum implementation, laboratory/workshop management, student performance, student feedback, academic administration, compliance with institutional policies, and professional conduct and institutional duties, as applicable.

Process

Self-Assessment – Employees log their key achievements, quantify results where possible, and note any obstacles they faced during the review period in the prescribed format.

Principal – The Principal reviews the self-assessment, adds contextual comments, and validates the performance ratings. They also explore the employee’s career aspirations and identify any skill gaps that need bridging.

Director – Director/Principal heads review ratings to ensure consistency across teams. The aim is to eliminate bias, ensure equitable standards, and align assessments with institutional goals.

Feedback Meeting – A one-on-one meeting between the employee and Director to finalize the appraisal. Together they confirm the agreed-upon ratings, set objectives for the next cycle, and outline concrete development actions (training, mentorship, project assignments, etc.).

Performance Rating Scale and Outcomes

Employee performance shall be evaluated based on the following rating categories and corresponding actions:

Outstanding (Above 85%) – The employee shall be eligible for Letters of Commendation, Performance Incentives, and Increments.

Very Good (75%–85%) – The employee shall be eligible for Increments, recognizing consistent high performance.

Good (65%–74%) – A tailored Development Plan shall be implemented, including appropriate training programmes, workshops, mentoring, or other skill enhancement initiatives to address identified gaps.

Needs Improvement (Below 65%) – The employee shall be placed under a structured Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) with clearly defined targets and a specified review period. The Management shall take an appropriate decision in accordance with institutional service rules.

Documentation

All appraisal forms, comments, and action plans are stored securely in the HR system for future reference and audit.
